

Do you need help with Transport?

Bathurst Community Transport provide affordable and reliable door to door transport for aged, transport disadvantaged and people with a disability living in the Bathurst region. Bathurst Community Transport was the first Community Transport in NSW and has been operating since 1978.

We have a specialised fleet of comfortable cars, including wheelchair accessible vehicles, vans and small buses.

Our service enables people to participate in their local community and maintain active and healthy lifestyles while living independently in their own homes.

Bathurst Community Transport is a not for profit service and receives funding under the CHSP and CTP Programs.

Advance bookings are essential

Making a booking

Call us on 6331 3322 to make a booking. Services are available Monday to Friday. Booking in advance for all travel is essential. We have limited drivers and vehicles so please book as soon as you make your appointment. If you need to cancel your booking, please let us know as soon as possible, cancellation fees may apply.

How much does it cost?

Transport is subsidised for eligible clients. The majority of the transport fee is covered by our funding, however clients are required to make a contribution. This amount varies depending on the distance travelled and type of transport. As a non-for-profit the fees we collect go directly back into our services.

Social Trips

We run regular, fun, social outings. Travel around the region taking in the sights and sounds and then enjoy a leisurely lunch in one of the great venues in the region.

Radiation Bus

This service is for anyone undergoing radiation therapy at Orange Health Service. The bus operates Monday to Friday departing from Daffodil Cottage, Bathurst. Contact us for details.

Volunteers

Our service is powered by dedicated volunteers. Volunteers assist in a variety of roles including driving, administration and our Management Committee.
